Mr. Vibhu Tyagi,

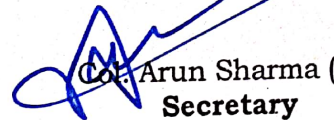

The Bar Council of Delhi had taken suo-moto cognizance of a viral video of violence, which took place at Tis Hazari Court premises on 05.07.2023, wherein advocates were found involved in clashing, hurling abuses and firing.

The Chairman, Bar Council of Delhi exercising powers vested with him in Rule 42, Chapter-IV of Bar Council of Delhi Rules, has suspended the licence of Mr.Manish Sharma (D/906/2005), Mr. Lalit Sharma (D/1281/2011), Mr.Sachin Sangwan (D/2509/2015) Mr. Ravi Gupta (D/3165/2021) and Mr.Aman Singh (D/1454/2003), to practice as advocates.

In continuation of that, the Hon'ble Chairman had constituted a Fact Finding Committee to identify the advocates involved in the incident and accordingly, the Committee after examining multiple video clippings and active cooperation of members of Tis Hazari Bar, have forwarded their interim report. After considering the recommendations of the Committee and material placed on record, Chairman, Bar Council of Delhi is fully satisfied that you among other advocates, are also seen actively involved in the violent incident and throwing stone.

Accordingly, Chairman, Bar Council of Delhi under the powers vested with him in Rule 42, Chapter-IV of Bar Council of Delhi Rules, has suspended your licence to practice as an Advocate, with immediate effect.

Further you are called upon to submit your written explanation and appear before the Bar Council of Delhi on 25.08.2023 at 4.00 P.M. in the office of the Council at 2/6, Sirifort Institutional Area, Khelgaon Marg, New Delhi-110049, failing which, ex-parte action shall be initiated as deemed appropriate in accordance with law.
